

Informatics Prize

The School of Informatics at the University of Edinburgh awards

Sean James Moran

The 2009 Informatics Prize for the degree of MSc Informatics

The Informatics Prize is awarded to the student who has obtained the highest overall mark for the MSc Informatics class

A handwritten signature in black ink, likely belonging to the Head of School.

Head of School

informatics